

Theresa Town Bilingual Hungarian – English, Hungarian – German Elementary School and Pedagogic Centre

4 Sándor Pethő str. Budapest, 1065

Theme of Project: Humour

Project timeframe: 20 lessons

Place: School & Summer Camp, Balatonmária

Target group: 14-year-old learners; 12 pupils

Language level: B2

Language competence: Ls

- read, create & interpret jokes
- understand the main points of a text
- understand texts with double meaning
- can speak about the given topic
- express, accept, reject ideas
- share opinions
- create situation on different topics
- act out jokes/ short plays
- make research on humour

Cross-circular links of the Module

- Drama
- Art
- Psychology
- Sociology

appearance Situation games d) Main topics & characters	verbal visual & physical humour	Group1 Group 2 Group 3
3) Collection of jokes on different topics (pupils' favourites)		Groupwork	2 lessons	Computer Designing a poster	Designing a poster
4) Listening to each others' jokes Choosing the best ones Designing the scenery Choreography Music			2 lessons		Evaluate the jokes Pupils vote themselves and the other groups
5) Acting out	Acting out		2 lessons
6) Outstanding representatives of British humour: comedians, actors, films Rowan Atkinson – as Mr. Bean Mr. Bean (a film, or comedy)	Collecting materials Own Research Constructing a Presentation	Individual research Individual research Whole group together	2 lessons 1 lesson 3 lessons	Using the Internet	Watching each others' Power point Presentation Evaluate each others' works Watching one of Mr.Bean's comedies or films

Jokes

Doctor: - Did you drink the medicine after your bath?

Patient: - After drinking the bath I didn't have too much room for the medicine.

Mother: - Now Poppy, eat your greens, they're good for growing children.

Soppy Poppy: - But who wants to grow children?

Teacher: - Sam, why are you always late for school?

Sam: - Because you always ring the bell before I get in.

Guest: - Waiter! What's that fly doing on my sorbet?

Waiter: - Learning to ski.

- Why does a witch ride on a broomstick?

- Because a vacuum-cleaner is too heavy.

- What does a monster do, when he loses his hand?

- He goes to a second-hand shop.